

International Services

UOVO is the premier storage and logistics provider for art, archives, and collectibles. Headquartered in New York with locations across the United States, UOVO is operated by a team of industry professionals. As an end-to-end international logistics partner, UOVO offers a full range of holistic services to suit your artworks' distinct needs.

Our international shipping team can provide bespoke global logistics coordination and solutions for airfreight and ocean freight, as well as cross-border ground transportation from the United States to Mexico and Canada.

IMPORT

- Customs clearance and import formalities at major ports across the United States with an emphasis on compliance and safety
- Secure and dedicated airport transfers
- A suite of in-house delivery and installation services for all types of artwork—from simple home installations to large outdoor rigging projects
- Connections with trusted and vetted shippers around the world via the ICEFAT network and beyond*

EXPORT SERVICES

- Export formalities and airfreight via major ports across the United States with an emphasis on compliance and safety
- In-house cargo screening services
- Custom crating services for all levels of shipments from personal collections, to gallery sales, to museum exhibitions
- Secure and dedicated airport transfers
- Connections with trusted and vetted shippers around the world via the ICEFAT network and beyond*

To learn more about how UOVO can support your international service needs, email international@uovo.art to speak with a member of our team.

ICEFAT

Current ICEFAT-certified locations include UOVO San Francisco and UOVO Denver.*

Certified Cargo Screening available at select locations. Please inquire with your Account Manager.*

