

Optional Loss Protection

At UOVO Fashion, we are committed to the preservation of garments and other high end collectibles. Our Optional Loss Protection (OLP) program protects your collection against loss or damage while it is in UOVO's custody, either in storage at a UOVO facility or in transit while under UOVO's care and control. OLP can mitigate financial risk for those clients who do not have a specialized insurance policy in place or clients who wish to supplement their existing insurance policy by adding a layer of protection for the valued items in their collection.

BENEFITS

- Mitigate risk by ensuring items are covered for the duration of time in which they are under UOVO's custody, care, and control
- Have peace of mind while your items are in storage or transit knowing that they are protected should unanticipated events occur
- Provide coverage to items that do not fall under a separate insurance policy
- Supplement an existing insurance policy by adding a layer of protection
